Rc. 14575/45 S dated 17-11-45.

Sir,

Sub:- The Kemmannu Co-operative Stores - South Kanara district Exemption from Rule XXVII and XXX of the Madras Co-operative Societies Act VI of 1932 - Exemption.-

The Kemmannu Co-operative Stores in the South Kanara district is situated in a building owned by one Sri P. Venkatakrishnayya, who happens to be the Secretary of the Stores. Under rule XXVII (1) (g) and (2) (g) and rule XXX of the Madras Co-operative Societies Act VI of 1932, a member of the committee is prohibited from being directly or indirectly interested in any contract of the society. The building is a new construction strong and rat-proof and situated in a central place in the village. The rent of Rs.12/- charged is reasonable. The Secretary, Sri P. Venkatakrishnaiah, is a rich and influential person with leisure and takes keen interest in the affairs of the stores. Under his guidance, the stores has worked very satisfactorily so far. It may not be in the interests of the society to ask him to resign his secretaryship under the provision of the rules cited. It may not be advisable to shift the stores to some other building either, as that is easily the best building for the purpose in the village.

P. T. O.

Under these circumstances I request the Government to exempt the Kammannu Co-operative Stores from the operation of the rules XXVII (1) (g) and (2) (g) and XXX and permit Sri P. Venkatakrishnaiah to continue to be the Secretary of the stores.
